Morning Oregonian.

VOL. XVIII. PORTLAND, OREGON: SATURDAY, JULY 4, 1863 NO. 1831

EASTERN DESPATCHES.

Indiana Affairs seldom in a lively Fix Just Now.

THE NEW ARMY AND NAVY OF AN ENGLISH MONARCH.

Rock and Mr. Dryden and its Effect—Inquiry the Matter of Correspondence Books—Minor Items of Interest.

Only last evening the wires failed just south of [illegible] Little encouraging news got through [illegible] that Tom Corcoranism during the day [illegible] a good deal of special effort. No doubt [illegible] will be connected again early this morning.

The Effect of the Knott Row in Ohio.

[illegible], July 13.—[Special.]—One of the interview [illegible] Hon. Wm. Allen, Democratic member of the [illegible], touching the splendid figure in Ohio, [illegible] will be the total reduction the number of members [illegible]. The general impression is that it would close [illegible] Democrat, but that would turn against the [illegible] to the county Governor's office, where [illegible] of it quite the contrary, according to a Ohio [illegible] correspondent the Republicans have lost [illegible] of getting their figures yet estimates [illegible] worse than they polled last, which is [illegible] than twenty thousand majority. The returns [illegible] counties, last year when both were cast heavy [illegible] payment of the regular vote to date is 240,000 [illegible] the same counties, so calling it a tie for the [illegible] Democratic majority, which has already been [illegible] Democratic majority in the State. The figures [illegible] to the privilege of publishing a letter for the [illegible] which leaves [illegible] Democratic majority [illegible] Democratic majority [illegible] coming to the treasury daily and paying taxes [illegible] portions of the year. The [illegible] either [illegible] are coming, as odd cases that have [illegible] and are starting up again.

Telegraph Operators' Grievances.

Penn., July 10.—[Special.]—So far as can be [illegible] from telegraph operators in the employ of [illegible] Union Telegraph Company, the [illegible] of that concern may appear need on Wednesday [illegible] providing for pay and reasonable work, does [illegible] as far as it goes, and seems satisfactory, but they [illegible] they would ask for further concessions. In this [illegible] No appeal [illegible] to the Board of Directors, but [illegible] to the Superintendent, who [illegible] if he knows the [illegible] and is disposed to do justice, [illegible] that all [illegible] will be satisfactorily settled. The [illegible] Superintendent will be [illegible] to-day.

Inquiry the Matter of Correspondence Books.

Washington July 13.—[Special.]—The records of the treasury department show that Wm. Langley is owner of $24,000 in bonds, a full per cent. appropriated to [illegible] Langley, Union stock bank, London, England.

Applicable for Clerkships.

Washington, July 10.—[Special.]—The civil service commission examined eighty-nine applicants for clerkships, half of whom were women, six being rejected, and one or two dead drunk.

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE SENATORSHIP.

Concord, N. H., July 10.—[Special.]—The situation remains in the same condition as when I last wrote. Both parties are [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

The Press

PORTLAND, OREGON, SATURDAY, JULY 18, 1885.

THE NEWS.

The Oregon Pacific express, leaving Albany yesterday, is to be carried over the mountains, three of the Lake Shore engines having been sent to Albany for the purpose. The Albany and Corvallis road is to be completed to Yaquina bay by the 1st of August. Lake Shore engines are also to be put on the Albany and Corvallis road, and the Albany and Corvallis people will not be allowed to use any other.

An infant child of Mrs. Mary Thomas, aged 2½, died from heat in Red Bluff, California, last week.

An engine and tender fell through a bridge at Rio Vista, last week, and injured the engineer, Ed Lynch.

Washington Territory.

Grant Wilson has been appointed Assessor of Walla Walla county.

Mrs. Wilkinson, who was supposed to be murdered at Walla Walla, was found last week in the house of a friend.

M. G. Hoglund and his surveying party, have returned to Walla Walla, and are now at about four miles from Dayton, and about ten miles from Lewiston.

Walla Walla Union: Mr. Hoglund and his party will be out from Dixie Meyer's station to this city during the present week. The remainder of the survey is expected to take not about 40 or 50 miles, at about $5 per day from Mr. Hoglund, and $10 in cash per day from the Northern Pacific, and $10 in cash per day from the Northern Pacific, and $10 in cash per day from the Northern Pacific